SOVEREIGN HOUSE

Passing of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and of Her other realms and territories, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith

*Our Princely Palace in San cratosia
9 September 2022*

On 8 September 2022, San cratosia and the world received the sad news that Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II had passed away at the age of 96.

We would like to express our condolences to the Royal Family, to the peoples of the United Kingdom and of the Commonwealth of Nations on the passing of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II.

As the longest reigning monarch in British history, Her Majesty remained authentic throughout Her Reign, a quality that was cherished by all Her subjects. In good times as well as bad times, Her Majesty was a beacon of stability in the face of an ever changing world.

She was also the pillar of a family, a mother, a grandmother and a great-grand-mother. The loss of a family member is never easy and We share the grief of the Royal Family in these trying times.

However, the Crown remains eternal and from the passing of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II comes a new era.

We wish the best to His Majesty King Charles III. May His Majesty continue the work started by Her Majesty all these years ago when She took on Her duties, and as this Royal Family has done for hundreds of years.

TREATIES

Treaty between the Principality of Sancratosia and the Parliamentary Monarchy of Duckionary

The Principality of Sancratosia and the Parliamentary Monarchy of Duckionary, hereafter called "the Nations", in accordance with the principles of international law;

Agree to the following :

ARTICLE 1.

The Nations recognize the sovereignty and independence of the other.

The Nations will not recognize a claim of sovereignty or independence that is concurrent with the ones claimed by the Nations.

ARTICLE 2.

The Nations establish formal diplomatic relations.

The Nations shall notify the other of any changes in administration or governance of foreign affairs in their respective governments.

ARTICLE 3.

The Nations recognize and reaffirm that both Nations are separate and equal sovereign entities.

ARTICLE 4.

The Nations adhere to the principles of non-intervention in the internal affairs and general administration of the other.

ARTICLE 5.

The Treaty comes into effect on the date of publication by the Nations, but no latter than ten days after the signature by the competent authorities of the Nations.

Given in Our Princely Palace in Sancratosia on five September two thousand twenty-two.

CLOE

Treaty between the Principality of Sancratosia and the Principality of Xomley

The Principality of Sancratosia and the Principality of Xomley, hereafter called "the Nations", in accordance with the principles of international law;

Agree to the following :

PREAMBLE

This document of conduct is to hereby certify the establishment of the recognition and friendship of the two nations.

ARTICLE 1.

The Nations agree to recognize the other Nation as an independent sovereign state, a professional diplomatic union, and a friend/ally.

ARTICLE 2.

The Nations agree to recognize the constitution and institutions of the other Nation including owned and/or claimed territories.

ARTICLE 3.

The Nations agree to refrain on publicly speaking negatively in any form on the matters of politics, political elections/debates, or towards holders of government offices within the other Nation.

ARTICLE 4.

The Nations agree to maintain and sustain mutual respect in any form toward the other Nation.

ARTICLE 5.

The Nations agree to recognize and respect the elections, appointments, and offices of the Head of State/Head of Government/Any Governmental Office within the other Nation.

ARTICLE 6.

The Nations agree to recognize and respect the line of succession of the other Nation and acknowledge the members of its Royal House, which shall be confirmed by its government.

ARTICLE 7.

This agreement will immediately expire and become actively void in the event of:

1. One of the Nations becomes non-existent, or defunct;
2. One of the Nations engages in active wrongdoing, controversy, negative and conflicting public behaviour towards the other Nation, negative or wrongful intentions towards the other Nation, conspiring in any unjust/illegitimate conspiracy towards the other Nation, or any related actions;
3. In the situation of one of the Nations declaring war or violently aggravating in action/impact towards any other nation or territory, will not affect this agreement. However, the Nations will have the right to expire this agreement if they see a reason to believe the other Nation has acted with illegitimate behaviour as the aggressor. In this scenario, a proper communication correspondence will be distributed between the two Nations, with a final judgement made at the discretion of the Nations. The Nations also reserves the right to remain neutral without explanation or prejudice, if the government deems the other Nation as the aggressor or if the government understands that the specified war/conflict could amount to a risk towards the Nation and/or government;
4. The Nations engage in conflict that questions the professionalism of its governmental administration;
5. The Nations make any changes to its government, the name of its Nation, or its reigning Sovereign House. In the event of this situation, a new agreement of friendship and recognition must be signed.

ARTICLE 8.

The terms and conditions of this agreement may be reviewed by each Nation's government, and may include evaluation further by a Head of State, depending on the situation. Any changes to this agreement cannot be done. In order to make any changes to the terms of this agreement, it must be voided and a new agreement must be signed. In the situation of the agreement being revised, this agreement will remain in effect and will proceed with the revised agreement as an extended continuation of its status.
