SOVEREIGN HOUSE

Total solar eclipse over Sancratosia

*Our Princely Palace in Sancratosia
9 April 2024*

Yesterday, we have lived through an historic event in the history of our young nation: a total solar eclipse.

This total solar eclipse, the first in almost 100 years over our territory, was an event that will not repeat itself until 2093, at least.

I thank everyone at the Sancratosian Space Agency for having provided the right tools to observe the total solar eclipse at the Princely Palace. You have made this event something memorable.

Sinsera,
